Please be advised that the information contained in this quick reference guide is no longer valid. Instead, refer to one of the following resources below.

If you have a Standardized Episode of Care (SEOC) authorization:
- Please review our SEOC Quick Reference Guide for relevant information on CPT codes and what is approved.
- If you’re not sure whether you have a SEOC authorization, the SEOC Quick Reference Guide will help tell you.

If you have a regular, authorization (non-SEOC):
- Please review our list of Provider Authorization Codes for relevant, approved CPT codes.
- Again, if you’re not sure whether you have a regular authorization or a SEOC, please review our SEOC Quick Reference Guide.
